

This is to certify that the following company

Anchor Bay Packaging Corp.
of Chesterfield, Michigan

Has subscribed to the Heat Treatment program adhered to by facilities contracting for wood packaging materials inspection in accord with the International Plant Protection

Convention's adoption of the International Standards for Phytosanitary Measures number 15 (IPPC-ISPM 15).

This company is required to operate in conformance to the American Lumber Standard Committee WPM Policy and Enforcement Regulations as approved by their Board of Review in the production of heat treated wood packaging materials.

Current subscriber for the year 2018

Export Wood Packaging Inspection Service has been contracted to perform routine audit inspections to monitor adherence to the specified regulations.

Richard Adams

Inspection Program Director
For Export Wood Packaging Inspection Service

